I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh.

Genesis 9:15

Be mindful of your mercy, O LORD, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old. Psalm 25:6

Jesus was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit. 1 Peter 3:18b

He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him. Mark 1:13

Loving Spirit, loving Spirit, you have chosen me to be, you have drawn me to your wonder, you have set your sign on me.

Proclamation

In life and death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, whom alone we worship and serve.

Prayer for Wholeness O Love, You are my Beloved, and I long for You, my soul thirsts for You; All that is within me thirsts, as in a dry and barren land with no water. Transform the fears that seem to separate me from You; make them disappear! Diminish each fear, as I face them, that they may be gone as in a dream when I awaken.

The desert loves to strip bare. Saint Jerome

The significance of desert and mountain is not who resides here, but what we ourselves have left behind in coming. David Douglas

For the garden is the only place there is, but you will not find it until you have looked for it everywhere and found it nowhere that is not a desert. W. H. Auden

INTO THE WILDERNESS: A Lenten Journey through Worship, Feb. 21-Mar. 28. Our theme for the season of Lent invites us to join Jesus with the "wild beasts" in the wilderness. What do we learn about God and ourselves when life as we know it is stripped down to its core? How do we carry what we learn in the desert into our ministries of justice and compassion? Consider these questions and more as we worship God through the Season of Lent. Special thanks to Adrienne Asam for liturgical art in this Season.

SUNDAY SEMINAR 2021 continues our explorations of racism and racial justice by reading How to be an Antiracist by Ibram Kendi. Feb. 28: Chapters 9 & 10.

MORE LIGHT GROUP. Join us today, Sunday, Feb. 21 at 12:30 p.m. to discuss ideas for events, opportunities and goals for 2021. We look forward * * * to seeing familiar faces, and we welcome new ones as well.

WHAT IT MEANS TO RISE FROM THE DEAD: Mid-Week Lenten Reflections. Wednesdays, 7:30 p.m. via Zoom, beginning Feb. 24. Even the disciples who are closest to Jesus debate with each other what it is "to rise from the dead" (Mark 9:10). How do we wrestle with this central Christian teaching, in the midst of a pandemic? As we work for social justice? As we face a climate crisis? Weekly gatherings on Wednesdays in Lent will reflect on these questions and more with music, art, story, and contemplation. Come to them all, or drop in as you can. Feb. 24: What It Means to Live!

COFFEE TALK with Pastor Gusti continues Sunday, March 7, 9:30 a.m. via Zoom. A time to check in on how things are going and dream big for our ministry to come.

The Wasteland, excerpt

Here is no water but only rock Rock and no water and the sandy road The road winding above among the mountains Which are mountains of rock without water If there were water we should stop and drink Amongst the rock one cannot stop or think Sweat is dry and feet are in the sand If there were only water amongst the rock
